Experience

2008 - Present
Freelance | Savannah, GA / San José, Costa Rica
Model Making and Graphic Design
As a freelance model maker I have had the chance to apply meticulous skills and techniques to build physical models requested by local firms in Savannah, GA. I seek different opportunities to experiment with different materials manually, with wood shop equipment and laser cutting technology.

June 2007 - September 2007
Rocco Design Architects Ltd. | Hong Kong SAR, China
Architectural Intern
This experience allowed me to assist running projects and preparing visual aid for several international design competitions. My involvement ranged from residential design, to interior finishes and details for multiple high rise buildings in Hong Kong.

June 2005 - September 2005
RSP Architects, Planners and Engineers (PTE) Ltd. | Singapore, Singapore
Architectural Intern
As a member of the Urban Master Planning team in this firm, I was exposed to architectural design and urban design. I participated in several restoration and planning projects of very large scale in various cities in China under Architect-Planner Liu Thai Ker.

June 2004 - September 2004
Gereg XJ Design | Dalian, China
Architectural Intern
XJ Design was a small boutique firm in the modern historical city of Dalian. In this small practice, I had the chance to generate models using 3dsMax. I specialized in interior and exterior details and finishes for the visualization team.
